MYSTERIOUS OLLIE PARKER.

Girl in Boy's Clothes, Cared for in Pater son, Says She Lives in New York. PATERSON, N. J., June 10 .- Dressed in boy's clothes, a girl who said she was accounting and statistics. There were So Many Beaths and So Much Trouble in picked up on the street to-day by a policethe Family of Late That She Shot Her- man and taken to police headquarters. self With Her Husband's Revelver She is now in St. aloseph's Hospital, where > tion her. Offie Parker is said by the police to mave been missing from her home, in West Fortieth street between Fourth and Fifth avenues, New York city, since March 10 last.

Policeman Luddy about 3 o'clock this morning saw as he supposed a boy loitering at Main and Grand streets and took him into custody as a vagrani. ighteen years ago and came to know the As soon as the prisoner spoke Luddy diticians of the Amen Corner at the old, realized that he had taken a girl into custody and called for a patrol wagen and had her taken to headquarters. While waiting for the arrival of the wagon the policeman questioned his prisoner, who said she was Olite Parker and that her home was in West Fortisth street, New York city. She did not explain new she came to be wearing boy's apparel nor did she give any further information about herself. What she said at headquarters, if she made any statement, is a secret so far. There is The circumstance that the father, no record of her arrest at headquarters William, and Fmms died within a short and no information about the girl can be obtained there.

It was learned, however, that Capt Horn died five weeks ago Jennie, who John H. Taylor, in charge at ponce near-is 22 years old, and her brother William, quarters, took the girl to St. Joseph's Hospital, where he had her placed in a private room. At the hospital all access o the girl is denied as she is said to be a Last Monday night William walked out of the Seventeenth street house in sleep and falling from the stoop got a bad scalp wound. Early yesterday morning he took another somnambular ramble whether or not the girl's identity had whether or not the girl's identity had whether or not the girl's identity had really been established. When the young girl was taken to the police station she asked for a Catholic priest, and Father Stein of Our Lady of Lourdes Church was called in. Shortly after his arrival and King awakened Horn and guided him after he had questioned the girl she was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital. It was pretty generally believed that the girl came from a prominent family and was out on a lark and for some reason came here. Whether she belonged in New York or elsewhere is not certain She undoubtedly told Capt. Taylor who she was, but he will not tell, as she was not a prisoner. The girl was well dressed in the clothing of a man, which fitted her well and she was plentifully supplied with She fell into money. She had a big roll of bills and It was said at Police Headquarters last night that the police knew nothing about the case.

SPANKED GIRL ELOPED. Ran Away With Boy of 17 and Set Up Home With Seant Furniture.

The girl would not let the detectives in and they were obliged to force the door as she was about to drop to the She said she ran away with Ford she had been spanked at home for going She insisted that is ready to marry him at any time.

Ford later was locked up for abduct

tion. He said the girl consented to go away with him because she had been abused at home. He rented the room on May 31, he said, and fitted it up with fur Mrs. Golden obtained a summons for Ford the first of the week and he appeared in the Second District Criminal Court. The mother insisted that he knew charge of Conductor C McMahon, which cause was in good hands and it was only something about the disappearance of her then took him in charge and he led them a long chase over Jersey City and Manhattan

Bronx Man Loses on Two Occasions in a Year and a Half.

Charles C. Townsend, who lives in an partment house at 991 Union avenue, The Bronx, and who was robbed of most of his silverware a year and a half ago, lost out again to a burglar yesterday This time a diamond stickpin, a gold watch and fob and some rare old coins went with the clean getaway of the burgiar. The job was done while Mrs. Townsend and her two sons were downtown doing shopping. The front door was easily opened by a jimmy stroke. The burglat had opened the door of John Brahm's apartment on the same floor, when he was frightened away without any pickings from that place.

Who Is to Pay for Fireworks?

An appeal was made yesterday to the Board of Estimate by Alderman Marx a member of the Fourth of July celebration committee, for an appropriation of $15,000 to help to pay for the fireworks display. Mayor Gaynor said he was doubtful as to the wisdom of asking for public money for the fireworks and in-timated that the committee ought to ask for subscriptions. Finally on the suggestion of the Mayor the matter to a special committee with instructions to report at the next meeting of the board.
